Member's Exhibit-Rules & Regulations

The Gibson Gallery, with approval of its Board of Directors, aims to give the Gallery members a chance to showcase their works in an annual "members show". The Fort Malden Guild of Arts and Crafts, the sole owners of this historical, Michigan Central Railway Station circa 1890, is a charitable organization, self-supporting and raises all of its own operating costs. Our beautiful building is open free to the public 11:00 -5:00pm Tuesday to Sunday during the course of the exhibit August 14- September 9.

- Original work only
- All medium: oil, acrylic, pastel, pencil, watercolour, gouache, mixed media, tempera, pen & ink, sculpture, needle arts, etc.
- Size 18"x24" maximum (framed)
- Entry must be ready to hang/display
- Wrap around canvas need not be framed provided it is painted on the sides
- Place your name and contact details on the back of the piece
- One submission per member
- No entry fee-sales are subject to a 20% commission charge
- Pre-register by phone (519)736-2826 or email office@gibsonartgallery.com by August 1,2012 as a courtesy to the exhibit committee to help us better plan the display
- Artwork must be delivered to the Gallery between August 7-12, 11am-5pm
- All members are invited to bring your favourite appetizer or dessert to a "potluck" reception (date to be announced)
- All art to be picked up at the Gallery between 5-8 pm on Sunday, Sept. 9 or during regular Gallery hours the following week.
- All art submitted will be subject to the discretion of the Gibson Gallery exhibit committee

Please note: the Gibson Gallery, its directors and employees cannot be held responsible for any lost/stolen or damaged items.
